KU CORE RECERTIFICATION REVIEW FORM

GOAL 5: SOCIAL RESPONSIBILITY AND ETHICS

The University Core Curriculum Committee (UCCC) is responsible for recertifying all KU Core courses. In order to achieve this goal, the UCCC asks all departments and programs that offer KU Core Goal 5 courses to complete and submit Recertification Review Forms to the UCCC by September 13, 2019. The KU Core site explains how you can upload these forms once you complete them.

RECERTIFICATION/ASSESSMENT:

1. How does the course present and apply distinct and competing ethics theories, each of which articulates at least one principle for ethical decision-making? Your response should explain how the combination of theories and principles address the concept of social responsibility, including responsibility to the physical environment.
2. How does the course include the presentation and application of ethical decision-making processes?

3. As appropriate, how does the course include the presentation and application of particular ethics codes?
4. How does the course include the application of principles, decision-making processes, and, as appropriate, ethics codes to specific ethical dilemmas in which important values conflict? Your response should describe representative case studies or other assignments that the students complete in the course.
5. Using data drawn from these case studies or other assignments, evaluate how effectively students in the course have been achieving the advanced education goal of practicing social responsibility and demonstrating ethical behavior.
6. Even in successful courses, student learning can always be improved. Based upon the evidence you collected about student learning in your course, please describe a plan for how the course might be refined in order to further increase students' sense of social responsibility and ethical behavior.
7. Please attach a copy of the syllabus for the most recent offering of the course. You may also attach other documents to illustrate the learning activities and assignments described in the previous questions.

Thank you for your participation in the KU Core!
